THE Pacific Northwest is America's natural garden for growing the bulbs listed in this folder. The following expressions from a few of our customers indicate the quality of our products and the satisfaction they can bring to you.

Anthony Ave., New York, N. Y., April 20, 1934.

The Daffodils I purchased from you last fall are wonderful. I have many of them with three and four buds per plant. Kindly send me a copy of your bulb list as soon as possible.

Nashville, Tenn., April 14, 1934.

I cannot refrain from telling you that I have been gratified beyond words with the outcome of my Daffodil order. They cost so little, and yet every one of them has produced gorgeous results. I have been especially delighted with the double white Narcissus, which are very rare in this section. They have been greatly admired this spring, and, needless to say, I am very proud of them.

Rushville, Ind., April 10, 1934.

The "Sir Watkin" Narcissus bulbs came through beautifully and I'm so proud of them. Please put me on your fall mailing list.

Tulsa, Okla., April 9, 1934.

Dear Sir: Just can't resist writing you how very pleased I am with my Madame Plomp Jonquils which I got from you last fall. They are perfectly beautiful and far exceed my greatest expectations. They have attracted a lot of attention and I suspect you'll get a number of orders as a result.

Cordell, Okla., April 3, 1934.

I wish you might see my Narcissus and Grape Hyacinths. Everyone is enjoying them who happens to come by. I have never seen such large Narcissus bulbs. Some have three blooming shoots. I've told my friends about your bulbs.

Estabrook, Colo., March 11, 1934.

May I tell you how delighted I was with the bulbs purchased from you last Autumn. I noticed today that some of the Daffodils were beginning to show. Of course that is entirely due to the extremely and most unusually mild winter we have had this year in Colorado. My gardener tells me he has never seen finer bulbs at any time and he spent many years working in the Denver City Parks.

Athens, Ala., March 12, 1934.

Last Fall I purchased a mixed collection of Narcissus and Jonquils. The former have not blossomed yet, but I do want to tell you how delighted I am with the size of the flowers of the Jonquils. If you should repeat this offer, please let me know.

Healdsburg, Calif., March 5, 1934.

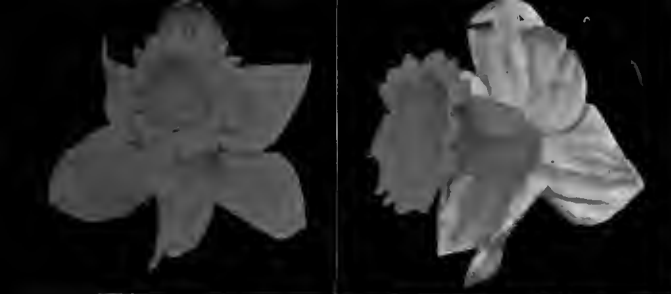

The special offer of 1000 bulbs that I got from you last fall are blooming now and are most satisfactory. Please send me your Fall bulb catalogue of special offers next Fall as early as possible and at your earliest convenience.

Boone, Iowa, February 17, 1934.

The bulbs I received from you last Fall were the nicest I ever saw.

CROCUS

The most popular use for these lovely flowers is to plant them in the lawn, simply lifting the turf and inserting the bulbs about two inches deep. They bloom very early, dying down in time to miss the lawn mower. Once planted they remain in the ground and bloom for years. We have purple, white-purple stripes and yellow varieties at 20 bulbs for $1.00; 100 for $4.25. Mixed, 25 for $1.00; 100 for $3.25. Sent postpaid.

DAFFODILS, NARCISSI, TULIPS

Your Garden Full of Daffodils for $2!

Again we offer a wonderful bargain in Daffodil bulbs.

Make no mistake! These are bulbs of the finest quality, ready to fill your garden with beautiful blossoms early next spring.

Read what some of our customers wrote of the bulbs sent them last year.

Two new varieties are added to the list: Sir Watkin and Empress.

The variety Golden Spur is splendid for growing in pots indoors.

Conspicuous (Barrii). Wide mouthed short cup of dark yellow edged bright orange-scarlet; broad, spreading perianth of soft yellow. A great favorite. Splendid for the border or naturalizing.

EXTRA CHOICE VARIETIES

We offer a very select group of choice Daffodils and Narcissi to supplement the more common varieties. You will find any of these will give you no end of pleasure.

Cassandra (Poeticus). Pure white perianth; cup rimmed dark red.

Elvira (Poetaz). Creamy-white perianth; yellow cup edged orange.

King Alfred (Yellow Trumpet). The king of Daffodils. Very large and sturdy rich golden yellow flowers. Curved and fluted trumpet, and broad, beautifully twisted petals. Splendid for cut flowers.

Madame de Graaff (White Trumpet). A lovely, graceful Daffodil; first of a new class and most famous of the white trumpets. Magnificent snow-white perianth; trumpet slightly tinged with primrose. Strikingly beautiful as a contrast to the rich yellow varieties.

Masterpiece (Barrii). Spreading cup of brilliant orange-scarlet; fully an inch wide with perianth sulphur-white. A beauty.

Spring Glory (Bicolor). Extra early. Broad, pure white perianth; large and long yellow trumpet with reflexed brim; excellent stem. Still a favorite both for the garden and for forcing.

Tresserve (Yellow Trumpet). An enormous flower; canary yellow perianth slightly hooded; bold rich yellow trumpet, broad at the mouth and deeply flanged.

Will Scarlet (Incomparabilis). One of the most striking Daffodils. Good cup of yellow ochre with fiery orange-scarlet edge; very broad and wide open; creamy white perianth. Fine for the rock garden.

Empress (Bicolor). Large rich yellow trumpet; white perianth. Striking as a border or naturalizing group when combined with all-yellow Daffodils.

Golden Spur (Yellow Trumpet). Early. Rich yellow perianth and trumpet. A most popular Daffodil for forcing or for the garden.

Madame Plem (Bicolor). A stately lady with deep golden yellow trumpet set off with an array of pure white petals. Beautiful as a cut flower.

Princeps (Trumpet). Yellow trumpet with sulphur-colored petals. A medium sized flower that fits any location.

Recurvus (Poeticus). The old Pheasant's Eye. Perianth pure white, somewhat reflexing; cup margined deep scarlet. Very fragrant. One of the latest to bloom.

Sir Watkin (Incomparabilis). Perianth primrose-yellow; large and well-formed deep yellow cup. A giant among the medium-crowned varieties.

Sulphur Phoenix (Double). Large creamy-white flowers with pale yellow center. Shaped like a rose. Prized for cutting.

Bicolor Daffodils. Mixed bicolor varieties.

Narcissi and Daffodils. A splendid mixture.

SINGLE JONQUILS

DOUBLE JONQUILS

SINGLE JONQUILS JONQUILLA SIMPLEX

No Spring garden is complete without at least one clump of these little star-shaped flowers. There are always two or three golden yellow blossoms on every stem. An exquisite scent permeates the whole garden during the three or four weeks they bloom. Bloom late. May be grown in pots indoors. Lovely as cut flowers.

DARWIN TULIPS

20 for $1.00; 20 each of 3 varieties, $2.75
100 of one variety, $4.50, postpaid

Baronne De La Tonnaye. A long, beautiful flower, clear rose at the center fading off to a soft pink at the edges. Excellent for early March forcing and fine for outdoor beds to bloom in late May. Of great substance, standing the weather well and is one of the best in lasting quality. Makes a splendid show and is superb for the border.

Bartigon. A large shapely flower and strong grower. Fiery crimson with pure white base broadly ringed deep blue.

Centenaire. Excellent for either bed or border. A rich beautiful rose colored tulip.

Clara Butt. A favorite everywhere because of its distinctive coloring. Clear pink flushed salmon-rose. Medium sized flower of good form. The most satisfactory of all Darwins for general growing.

Professor Rauwenhoff. Large flower of great substance on a very strong stem. Superb for both bedding and forcing. A brilliant cherry-red, the inside glowing scarlet.

Wm. Copeland. Lilac-rose. Not a large flower but of merit because it may be forced as easily as the early Tulips.

Mixed. A grand mixture of Darwin varieties.

COTTAGE TULIPS

16 for $1.00; 16 each of 3 varieties, $2.75
100 for $5.50, postpaid

Ellen Willmott. One of the finest and most beautifully shaped May flowering Tulips. Blossoms very large, soft creamy yellow. Delightfully fragrant.

Grenadier. Dazzling brilliant scarlet with rich yellow base. A very large and well-shaped flower on a sturdy stem. Makes a spectacular show, especially when planted with a background of dark shrubbery. One of the best for late forcing.

Inglescombe Yellow. Glossy canary yellow. Large globular flowers of perfect form on strong stems. Same shape as the Darwin and is often called the Yellow Darwin.

Picotee (Maiden's Blush). Equally popular for the border and for cutting. White background, margined bright pink, the color suffusing the whole flower as it ages. Petals pointed and elegantly reflexed. A delicate and beautiful bloom.

Mixed. Cottage tulips in a splendid mixture.

BREEDER TULIPS

14 for $1.00; 14 each of 3 varieties, $2.75
100 for $7.00, postpaid

Bronze Queen. Large, strong flower, stout stem; soft golden bronze, inside yellowish with a bright lemon base. Of beautiful form; exquisite when forced.

Grande Maitre. Exquisite flower of deep purple. A prize for any garden. Old Times. A beautiful and unusual color combination. Dull purple, edged primrose-yellow, green base. Fine for the border.

Queen Alexandra. Medium sized, elegantly shaped flower. Soft sulphur-yellow flushed lilac-brown at the tip of petals.

St. James. Very large flower on tall stem. Lilac-edged tan, shaded light rose. Inside mahogany with golden brown edge. Fine for exhibition purposes.

Mixed. Breeder tulips including many unusual shades of color.

NOVELTY, BRANCHING TULIPS

Monsieur Mottet. It is just the thing for you, who do not like Tulips because they seem stiff and precise in spite of their gaudy colors. This Tulip is a soft ivory white and has six flowers or so on a stem at a time. It grows about two feet high and belongs to the May-flowering group. It can be used as a contrast with a brilliant Lily-flowered Tulip, such as Sirene, or as a soft white note in a planting of blue Phlox Divaricata and yellow Polyanthus Primroses. 10 for $1.00, postpaid

ENGLISH IRIS — THE ORCHID IRIS

12 selected bulbs, $1.00, postpaid

A grand addition to your garden. Easy to grow, sure to flower. No garden flower so nearly resembles the orchid, none is more adaptable for cutting. The latest Iris to bloom.

Our mixture contains only first grade bulbs; numerous delicate shades of blue, lavender, white and maroon.

DUTCH AND SPANISH IRIS

20 for $1.00; 50 for $2.00; 100 for $3.75, Postpaid

Spanish Iris are orchid-like in their beauty of form and color and are among the prettiest of all Spring flowers for cutting and garden decoration.

Dutch Iris are very similar to the Spanish Iris but are larger and bloom a little earlier.

Unlike the German Iris, both Spanish and Dutch Iris are grown from bulbs, not roots, and should be planted early in the Fall. They are easily grown and will do well either in the full sun or partial shade.

DUTCH IRIS

Imperator—Popular florist's variety and one of the best of all. Very large. The color is a uniform rich dark blue.

White Excelsior—A pure uniform white, falls very broad, of good form and substance.

Yellow Queen—Standards and falls a bright golden yellow. The long wiry stems make it an excellent cut flower.

Mixed—Dutch.

SPANISH IRIS

Cajanus—A brilliant yellow with orange blotch.

Flora—Pale lavender standards with ruffled falls of creamy white.

King of the Blues—A very beautiful deep blue.

Mixed—Spanish.

COLCHICUM (MEADOW SAFFRON)

In the House

As the illustration shows, this amazing bulb will bloom without soil, water or any care. Simply place the bulbs on the table and watch the flowers open. Beautiful for gifts. Ideal for apartments. Interesting for an invalid. Placed in a dish near the light with soil and moisture, better results are obtained.

In the Garden

These autumn flowering bulbs are at home either in the border, lawn or rock garden. The large Crocus-like blossoms appear after the foliage has died down and they give, when established, a succession of flowers from August till October.

Colchicums will bloom under nearly any conceivable condition. You can put them in cold storage, in a dark cellar, pack them away in boxes, plant them in the ground, or set them on the dining room table. Outside of destroying them, it is impossible to keep them from blooming. If allowed to bloom without sunlight, however, the flowers are pale and not as attractive as if given a little sunlight.

We know of no other flower that will be as interesting and will give you the pleasure these bulbs will. Be sure to try some of them this year.

Give a few to your friends. They make an interesting gift that will not be forgotten.

Early orders are imperative as the flowers insist on coming when ready. Shipment in August.
